| Iraq | Private Sector |  | Results | Immigration |
| Environment | China | Keystone XL | Don't Ask Don't Tell | Osama Bin Laden |
| Budget | Bipartisan | Energy | Security | Afghanistan |

Rules:

1. When you hear the President say any of the catchphrases located on your bingo sheet, use a marker (bottle cap) to cover the space. 5 in a row makes a BINGO—horizontal, vertical, or diagonal. None of this postage stamp nonsense.
2. When a player shouts “BINGO,” all the other players take a drink, then clear their sheets. You may switch sheets with other players if desired.
3. (Insert other [drinking] game rules here)
4. During the game, keep tally of the number of drinks you’ve taken. At the end of the address, the number of tally marks is the number of times you have to call your elected official this year to advocate for an issue you care about.
